

THE ROLLING STONES Rebellion's Children
Michael A. O'Neill

ROCKTALK THE ROLLING STONES

REBELLION'S CHILDREN

HARDCOVER SPECIAL EDITION

Along with The Beatles, The Rolling Stones were the key group of the sixties; headline makers, style icons, trend setters – but most of all the force behind a string of brilliant singles and albums that have come to define the era.

If The Cavern in Liverpool was the birthplace of the Mersey beat, then the Crawdaddy Club in Richmond, where the Stones played their first gigs, was at the heart of British rhythm and blues. Formed in 1962 this tells their incredible story including profiles of the past and present members Mick Jagger, Keith Richards Charlie Watts, Ronnie Wood together with Brian Jones, Bill Wyman and Mick Taylor.

This indispensable book is an essential purchase for those who want to experience the raw excitement that is the Rolling Stones.
