Pink Floyd Backstage Pass provides an insight into the unique journey of one of the most ground breaking and influential bands of all time Pink Floyd.

Follow their incredible journey from students when the band formed in Cambridge in 1965 and consisted of Syd Barrett, Nick Mason, Roger Waters, Richard Wright with Dave Gilmour joining in 1967. Syd Barrett left in 1968 but remains synonymous with the group. Pink Floyd rose to become the most commercially successful and musically influential group in the history of popular music. We go backstage with Pink Floyd in detail telling the stories behind their incredible success from the stadium gigs to the recording sessions that made some of the worlds best selling rock albums.
