WHITNEY HOUSTON

THE GREATEST LOVE OF ALL

Whitney Houston, the most awarded female artist of all time and is one of the best-selling recording artists of all time, with sales of over 200 million records worldwide. Houston released seven studio albums and two soundtrack albums, all of which have been certified diamond, multi-platinum, platinum, or gold by the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA). She is regarded as one of the greatest artists and female vocalists of all time.

The albums Whitney Houston (1985) and Whitney (1987), both peaked at number one on the Billboard 200 and are among the best-selling albums of all time. She is the only artist to have seven consecutive number-one singles on the US Billboard Hot 100 chart, from "Saving All My Love for You" in 1985 to "Where Do Broken Hearts Go" in 1988.

Houston made her acting debut with the romantic thriller film The Bodyguard (1992). She recorded six songs for the film's soundtrack, including "I Will Always Love You", which won the Grammy Award for Record of the Year and became the best-selling physical single by a female in music history. It won the Grammy Award for Album of the Year and remains the best-selling soundtrack album of all time.

On February 11, 2012, Houston was found dead at the Beverly Hilton in Beverly Hills, California. Houston was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2020.

Clive Davis who signed her as an artist to Arista and mentored her is producing a major Hollywood movie of her life with an insider's view.

This is her story.
